V arhitekturi in umetnosti nekdanje Jugoslavije izstopajo brezčasni spomeniki žrtvam narodnoosvobodilne vojne. Snovali so jih najprepoznavnejši jugoslovanski arhitekti in kiparji, kot so Bogdan Bogdanović, Edvard Ravnikar, Vojin Bakić, Dušan Džamonja in mnogi drugi. Namesto režimske simbolike so v svojih stvaritvah prepletali sodobnost, preteklost, mistiko, elemente antičnih nekropol, etnografijo in prostorsko poetiko. Razstava prikazuje 33 spomenikov oziroma spominskih kompleksov iz vseh republik in avtonomnih pokrajin nekdanje Jugoslavije, izbranih na podlagi visoke arhitekturno-umetniške vrednosti objektov in izjemne kontemplativnosti prostorskih zasnov.

In the architecture and art of ex-Yugoslavia, the timeless monuments to the victims of the People's Liberation War stand out. They were designed by Yugoslav architects and sculptors of the highest profile, such as Bogdan Bogdanović, Edvard Ravnikar, Vojin Bakić, Dušan Džamonja and many others. Instead of the regime's symbolism, their creations combined the present, the past, mystique, the elements of antique necropolises, ethnography and spatial poetics. The exhibition presents 33 monuments or memorial complexes from all the republics and autonomous provinces of ex-Yugoslavia, selected on the basis of high architectural and artistic value of the structures and the exceptional contemplative qualities of the spatial designs.
